MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

FROM : Angus MacLean Thuermer
Assistant to the Director

SUBJECT : Air Force Association Briefing Request

As I mentioned briefly at the 11 June morning meeting, the Air Force Association is holding its 30th annual national convention in Washington next September.

Their executive director has asked if 500 members can come out here by bus to be briefed on September 22.

I hope that our experience with the AIAA did not leave us so puckered up we can't respond to this good opportunity. The Association is composed of Air Force veterans, many of them retired officers, reservists or guardsmen. The delegates come from 300 cities in every state. Many are civic leaders.

I favor ~~our~~ obliging these people. Incidentally, the new guidelines on public speaking are ready for the Management Committee to consider.

The Association's letter is attached. We should give them the courtesy of an early reply.

This might be occasion to consider AIAA in light of these new guidelines - This group for example, is major lobby for Aerospace industry, B-1 bomber, etc.

Angus:

See DCI's note but keep in mind that these guidelines have not yet been approved because they are the subject of a Hank Knoche/Paul Walsh dialogue at the moment. In order to play it safe, please review with Walsh and clear with Knoche.
